NOTE from the PASTOR

Today is the Feast of Pentecost. The day in which the Church was born and begun her mission. It was a new day for the world, to give it the opportunity to grow in holiness and virtue. On Pentecost, Following the 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses, we will chant the Veni Creator in thanksgiving to the Holy Spirit for all the fruits and gifts that He has bestowed upon us. A plenary indulgence is included with this, under the usual conditions. We will have Solemn Vespers at 3:30 p.m.

Today we also inaugurate a new way to do the bulletin and newsletter for the parishes. We are moving to a full-colored monthly newsletter that will include the information on things coming up over the next six weeks or so, in addition to some catechesis. A single-page weekly bulletin will be put out each Sunday, including that week's Mass intentions and very brief information on things that either didn't make it into the newsletter or needed reminders. I am hoping that this helps to streamline the way we communicate and also make it more efficient. Many of the same announcements were repeated, which seemed to be a waste of paper and resources. I hope that with this model, we save both time and resources while at the same time presenting the information needed efficiently and attractively. There will undoubtedly be tweaks over the coming weeks and months, but the newsletter will be released the first of each month while the Sunday bulletin will continue to be leased each Sunday. If you have any constructive feedback, please let us know! The next edition will come out in July.

The past several months have been busy, but we are grateful for what God has accomplished this past year, as difficult as it may have been. We are thankful for our three new priests, two for the Oratory and one for the Archdiocese. We are also grateful for the many new faces between our parishes, and now that the restrictions are slowly being lifted, we hope in the coming weeks and months to get to know you better! Please certainly keep our upcoming Masses and other events in mind and put them on your calendar now.

The next few weeks will also continue to be busy. We come first of all to the very busy first week of June. On June 1, transferred from May 26, we celebrate the Feast of St. Philip Neri, the founder of the Oratory. Please be sure to join us for Mass on this day to celebrate this saint of joy! We also celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi that week on June 3 (and again on June 6). There will be Eucharistic Processions on Thursday and Sunday, so be sure to mark these dates down now! On June 11, we will celebrate the Feast of the Sacred Heart with a special Feast Day Mass at Sacred Heart. Wrapping up the summer will be the Feast of St. John the Baptist on June 24 with solemn Mass at 6:30 p.m. A reception will follow both the Feast of the Sacred Heart and the Feast of St. John the Baptist.

We will enter into a summer slowdown after that, where I hope to plan our upcoming year and get caught up on several things we are behind on. Hopefully, things are back to mostly normal in the autumn, and all of our regular activities can resume!

May the Lord bless you over this month, and Mary, keep you!

Fr. Paul Beuch

Talking in Church

Please remember the church is the House of God. It is important to remember that in church, we are in His presence. Please try to maintain a prayerful spirit while also being respectful of others who come for quiet prayer. There is much noise and talking in the world, the church is our refuge into silence, to which Cardinal Robert Sarah calls us. Please keep talking to a minimum and talk to the Lord in the silence of your own heart.

Military Service?

Do we have any parishioners who are currently on Active Duty Military assignment? Let us know if you would like to be included in the bulletin for prayers.

The minimum is two adorers per hour, but our goal is nine hundred! Everyone is welcome at anytime during Exposition, even if you can't take a scheduled hour or be a substitute.

Pregnancy Center News

HELP NEEDED! We could use some help with moving the winter clothes from the Pregnancy Center to the Clay St. garage and the summer clothes from the Clay St. garage to the Pregnancy Center (involves about 18 bins both ways). Probably on a Friday or Saturday. If interested, contact Terri at 513-929-9165 or email at terrihuwel@yahoo.com for details. The more help we get, the easier the task!

Partially Indulged Prayer

Treasure and Tradition is just what you've been waiting for! Whether you've been attending the Extraordinary Form of the Mass for years, or are merely curious about it, this guide is designed to open up the riches contained within the Mass to all. Inside, you will find a word-for-word English translation of the Latin text of the Mass, together with photos, diagrams, notes and explanations that will help you not only to follow along, but also to understand the history and significance of the ceremonies in which you are taking part. In addition, you will find sections explaining the main differences between the Ordinary and Extraordinary Forms, a discussion comparing the development of the Mass with that of its sister liturgy, the Divine Office, an exploration of the English translations of the Bible, a full glossary, and finally, recommended prayers intended to help you prepare when receiving the sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist. –Amazon.com

In this absorbing interview, Bishop Athanasius Schneider offers a candid, incisive examination of controversies raging in the Church and the most pressing issues of our times, providing clarity and hope for beleaguered Catholics. He addresses such topics as widespread doctrinal confusion, the limits of papal authority, the documents of Vatican II, the Society of St. Pius X, anti-Christian ideologies and political threats, the third secret of Fatima, the traditional Roman rite, and the Amazon Synod, among many others. Like his fourth-century patron, St. Athanasius the Great, Bishop Schneider says things that others won't, fearlessly following St. Paul's advice: "Preach the word, be urgent in season and out of season, convince, rebuke, and exhort, be unfailing in patience and in teaching" (2 Tim 4:2). His insights into the challenges facing Christ's flock today are essential reading for those who are, or wish to be, alert to the signs of the times. Reminiscent of The Ratzinger Report of 1985, Christus Vincit will be a key point of reference for years to come. –Amazon.com

Robert Cardinal Sarah calls The Day Is Now Far Spent his most important book. He analyzes the spiritual, moral, and political collapse of the Western world and concludes that "the decadence of our time has all the faces of mortal peril."

A cultural identity crisis, he writes, is at the root of the problems facing Western societies. "The West no longer knows who it is, because it no longer knows and does not want to know who made it, who established it, as it was and as it is. Many countries today ignore their own history. This self-suffocation naturally leads to a decadence that opens the path to new, barbaric civilizations."

While making clear the gravity of the present situation, the cardinal demonstrates that it is possible to avoid the hell of a world without God, a world without hope. He calls for a renewal of devotion to Christ through prayer and the practice of virtue. –ignatius.com

A recent Catholic Gentleman podcast from early April features a discussion on the architecture of Catholic churches. Is traditional church design greater than modern? What makes a church beautiful? How is the sense of the sacred built into churches? Do ugly churches actually undermine the faith? Listen at catholicgentleman.com or most places where podcasts can be found to this and many other interesting faith-based discussions.
