EASTER MESSAGE

*Happy Easter! Frohe Ostern! Buona Pasqua!
Surrexit Dominus vere! Alleluja!*

NOTE from the PASTOR

On behalf of the Fathers of the Oratory, and our parish staff, I wish each of you a very Happy Easter! I pray that the risen Lord brings your much peace during this Paschaltide!

I thank everyone who helped in any way to prepare for Holy Week, the Sacred Triduum, or Easter Sunday. I also congratulate all those who received Sacraments during the Easter Vigil. This was our largest class in recent history. While the Easter Vigil was laborious and long, it has brought to our parishes much fruit, and Our Lord now nourishes new souls in the Blessed Sacrament. We each ought to be very grateful and edified by this and pray that many more enter the Lord's Church.

Since he is able to expound on the joy of this day better than I am, I present for your meditation during this Easter Octave the following sermon of St. John Chrysostom! Happy Easter!

Fr Paul Beach

If any be devout and God loving, let him enjoy this fair and radiant triumph. If any be a good and wise servant, let him enter rejoicing into the joy of his Lord. If any be weary of fasting, let him now receive his reward. If any have labored from the first hour, let him receive today his rightful due. If any have come at the third hour, let him feast with thankfulness. If any have arrived at the sixth hour, let him in no wise be in doubt, for in no wise shall he suffer loss. If any be delayed even until the ninth hour, let him draw near, doubting nothing, fearing nothing. If any have tarried even until the eleventh hour, let him not be fearful on account of his lateness; for the Master, Who is jealous of His honor, receiveth the last even as the first. He giveth rest to him that cometh at the eleventh hour, as well as to him that hath labored from the first hour; and to the last He is merciful, and the first He pleaseth; to the one He giveth, and to the other He bestoweth; and He receiveth the works, and welcometh the intention; and the deed He honoureth, and the offering He praiseth. Wherefore, then, enter ye all into the joy of your Lord; both the first and the second, receive ye your reward. Ye rich and ye poor, with one another exult.

Ye sober and ye slothful, honor the day. Ye that have kept the fast and ye that have not, be glad today. The table is full-laden, delight ye all. The calf is fatted; let none go forth hungry. Let all enjoy the feast of faith, receive all ye the riches of goodness. Let no one bewail his poverty, for the universal kingdom hath been revealed. Let no one weep for his transgressions, for forgiveness hath dawned from the tomb. Let no one fear death, for the death of the Savior hath set us free. He hath quenched by it, He hath led hades captive, He Who descended into hades. He embittered it, when it tasted of His flesh. And foretelling this, Isaiah cried: "Hades," he saith, "was embittered when it encountered Thee below." It was embittered, for it was abolished. It was embittered, for it was mocked. It was embittered, for it was slain. It was embittered, for it was overthrown. It was embittered, for it was fettered. It received a body and encountered God. It received earth, and met heaven. It received that which it saw, and fell to what it did not see. O death, where is thy sting? O hades, where is thy victory?

Christ is risen, and thou art cast down.
Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen.
Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice.
Christ is risen, and life flourisheth.
Christ is risen, and there is none dead in the tombs.

For Christ, being risen from the dead, is become the firstfruits of them that have fallen asleep. To Him be glory and dominion unto the ages of ages. Amen.

A Beautiful Easter

Thank you to everyone who helped make Holy Week and Easter another amazing success. So much work goes on behind the scenes, from cleaning, to programs, to planning, to practices. Much gratitude to all who helped!0

Palm Sunday Sacred Heart Ravioli Sale

Thank you to all the volunteers who made the Palm Sunday ravioli sale possible. All the hard work and dedication is what made this event a success and allows Sacred Heart to continue the tradition.

Charity with Parking

Please remember that we are all called to charity at all times. Parking at Old St. Mary's is very tight and sometimes James does double park cars. If you do not want to be blocked in, please talk to James before parking to find a place where you can get out. If you stay for a social after Mass, you are more likely to get double parked and have to wait for the conclusion of the following Mass. Please keep this in mind and be patient!
