Happy New Year! Frobes neues Jahr! Buon anno! Felicem Annum Novum!

NOTE from the PASTOR

On behalf of the Fathers of the Oratory and the parish staff, I wish each of you a very Happy New Year! I pray that this new year brings us many blessings and grace!

As we reflect upon this Christmas season, the hope of a new year, while also contrasting with all the bad that we know has come before, we must remember that while God promises us grace and blessings, He never promised that life would be easy. The child whose birth we just commemorated was ultimately born to die for us on the cross!

St. Francis de Sales, whose feast day we will keep later this month, once said: "The everlasting God has in His wisdom foreseen from eternity the cross that He now presents to you as a gift from His inmost heart. This cross He now sends you He has considered with His all-knowing eyes, understood with His divine mind, tested with His wise justice, warmed with loving arms and weighed with His own hands to see that it be not one inch too large and not one ounce too heavy for you. He has blessed it with His Holy Name, anointed it with His consolation, taken one last glance at you and your courage, and then sent it to you from Heaven, a special greeting from God to you, an alms of the all-merciful love of God."

So whatever may come at us this upcoming year, remember that God sends to us His grace and His blessings regardless. Nothing has the ability to stop that, except ourselves.

As part of your new year's resolutions, I urge you all to include your spiritual life. Not just as a penance, or for a period of time, but to change your life. To strive to conquer, with God's grace, some vice. To seek never to miss an opportunity for the Sacraments because every opportunity may be our last one. To strive to do all of your daily prayers, perhaps picking up the habit of the Rosary this year. Finally, to ensure that you are doing proper penance and mortification, to prepare yourself for those crosses that God has fashioned for us and will send us from Heaven.

We only get one life, and we will never get time back. So instead of always putting off till tomorrow or next year, what you can do today, do it today! May the Lord bless each of us immensely in this new year!

Sacred Heart office hours are by appointment.

The Mourning Virgin (detail), ca. 1530-40, Adriaen Isenbrant

Join the Sorrowful Mother Adoration group on the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th Fridays of the month for Mass and all night Eucharistic Exposition at Old St. Mary. Mass begins at 7:00 p.m., followed by the novena. All-night vigil goes until 7:00 a.m. Saturday morning, concluding with benediction followed by Mass at 7:15 a.m. Call Mr. Shannon Roblin at 513-502-8548 or Mrs. Dolores Brandstetter at 513-561-4155 for additional information.

Please remember the church is the House of God. It is important to remember that in church, we are in His presence. Please try to maintain a prayerful spirit while also being respectful of others who come for quiet prayer. There is much noise and talking in the world, the church is our refuge into silence, to which Cardinal Robert Sarah calls us. Please keep talking and distractions to a minimum and talk to the Lord in the silence of your own heart.

Groups for Children and Young Adults

The Carmelite Daughters of Elias have organized several groups for faith formation and life lessons: The Society of the Little Flower is for girls, ages 6-12, interested in learning about the life and message of St. Therese, the Virgin Mary, and as well as many other heavenly helpers. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Sodality is for young women, ages 12-18, and teaches about living the spirituality of Our Lady in everyday life. And, the The Ascend Carmel Young Adult Spirituality Group learns of Carmelite spirituality by studying the lives and writings of Carmelite saints. Please email carmelitedaughtersofelias.com to learn more about any of these groups or to sign up your child.

Interested in learning about vocations? Contact Fr. Adrian at ahilton@cincinnatiatoratory.com to learn more about the Oratory and Mother Marie-Cecile at mcecile@oldstmarys.org for vocation inquiries to the Carmelite Daughters.

Old St. Mary's Adoration is on Tuesday and First Fridays. The hours are on parish schedule on page 2. The minimum is two adorers per hour, but our goal is nine hundred! Exposition is open to everyone, even if you can't take a scheduled hour or be a substitute. Contact the parish office or visit adoration.oldstmarys.org to sign up.

Pregnancy Center

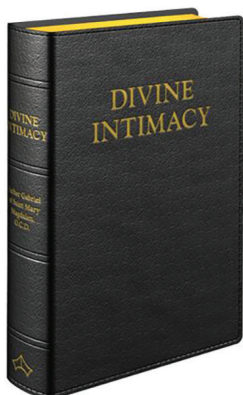

I just want to thank all the generous parishioners and others for their support of OSM Pregnancy Center over the last 20 years. By the grace of God, I know many unborn babies have been saved here. For each one, it is important for us to remain open. May God bless our faithful volunteers, both living and deceased, for their dedicated service to the sanctity of life.

We will continue to strive to build a civilization of life in this culture of death. Pray that the Supreme Court overturns Roe vs. Wade. – Terri Huwel, Director OSM Pregnancy Center CONFESSIONS: With the (blessed) growth of our parishes, confession lines have been overwhelmed. Only Fr. Jon-Paul and Fr. Henry have full-time assignments to the parishes. Fr. Brent is part-time on music and part-time assisting in the parish. Fr. Adrian's primary assignment is at Christ Hospital and the Hamilton County Jail and he helps out with Masses and other tasks as needed. So, we offer what we are able to right now. Confession times before 9:00 a.m. daily Mass at Sacred Heart and before Old St. Mary's 12:10 Mass are often not full. Saturday mornings are usually less crowded with two priests generally hearing confessions at that time. If you are able to make it to a less busy time, please do so for those who can't. Please always try to be concise, clear, and well prepared, especially when the confession line is long. If you need spiritual advice on any matter that requires more than a few minutes, please make a separate appointment—we're happy to be of service. Thank you for your consideration and cooperation so that we may make the Sacrament of Penance available to as many people as possible.

It is time to kick off the 2022 Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA) throughout the archdiocese! The CMA is our opportunity each year to support the work of six vital ministries all of which operate right here in our archdiocese. Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's CMA. Your help is needed as we stand together for the faith of the Gospel for thousands of people served throughout our archdiocese. Watch for more information in the coming announcements. Thank you!

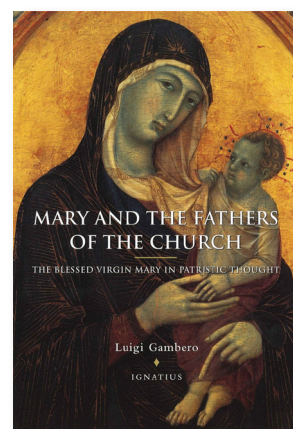

Divine Intimacy is the highest state attainable on earth. In this union of love, the soul produces acts of love which have an immense apostolic influence on a multitude of souls. This knowledge of the ways that lead to God, according to the teaching of the renowned Spanish mystics, is distilled into the pages of this book.

This book of meditations is a classic and is steeped in Carmelite spirituality. For every day it offers two meditations, in liturgical arrangement, that enable the soul to enter the conscious presence of God and to reflect on the theme of the day. These are followed by a “colloquy” that helps the person at prayer to start a friendly conversation with God where acts of praise and love, petition and thanksgiving are made, together with good resolutions for the future. Here we are at the very heart of prayer, which is a heart-to-heart encounter in faith with the living God.

Father Luigi Gambero, internationally-known expert on early Christianity, presents a comprehensive survey of the development of Marian doctrine and devotion during the first eight centuries. Focusing on the lives and works of over thirty of the most famous Church Fathers and early Christian writers, Fr. Gambero has produced a clear and readable summary of the richness of the patristic age's theological and devotional approach to the Mother of God.

The book contains numerous citations from the works of those men who developed the defining Christological and Mariological positions that have constituted the foundational doctrinal teaching of the Church. Each chapter concludes with an extended reading from the works of the patristic authors. A number of these texts have never before been published in English.

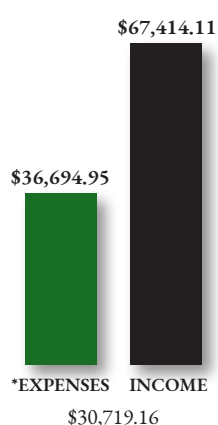

The thought of the Fathers and early Christian writers continues to fascinate readers today. Their theological acuity and spiritual depth led them faithfully into the mysteries of Sacred Scripture. Their vast experience made them reliable and trustworthy witnesses to the faith of the people of God.
