NOTE from the PASTOR

We have now entered the hot and slow month of July. Now that the "parish year" has mostly concluded, I wanted to thank everyone who helped in any way over these past few months. From my fellow priests, the parish staff who assists me in invaluable ways, to our neighbors in the neighborhood who we partner with to make life easier for all of us, to each of you in the pews. So many people pull together to help make this parish a great one. Thank you!

The priests and sisters always look forward to the following two slow months to plan for the upcoming "parish year," which we inaugurate each Feast of the Holy Cross on September 14.

Change is a reality for any living and growing organism, and our parish is no different. Thank you to everyone who has been so patient with the ever-changing reality of our world. Change is never easy, but it does allow us to grow and flourish (hopefully!). So, as we say goodbyes, we make new introductions, and I am thrilled to welcome back Mr. Sean Connolly to take the music program at Old St. Mary into a new chapter. I have every confidence he will be a great addition and fit!

No one has asked recently, but from time to time, we get asked why the priests here go by their first names rather than their last names and is that somehow "liberal." In the days of St. Philip Neri, secular priests were not called Father, as that was reserved to religious priests, that is those who take vows. St. Philip, when he founded the Oratory, it didn't have a "religious" character, but it wasn't strictly speaking "secular" in nature either. Secular priests, for example, are mostly made up of diocesan priests. So St. Philip was affectionately called Father Mister Philip. The Oratory, in law, has all the rights of the secular and religious clergy. In so far as nothing contradicts, of course. So, after the example of St. Philip, and in keeping with the law and custom of the Church, we go by our first names. It is neither liberal nor conservative; it just is what it is.

The danger of the world moving further and further apart to the extremes is that we risk having a distorted view of what is and isn't traditional. Do your best to avoid this tendency. It isn't healthy for our spiritual lives. We have nothing to prove or gain by trying to be the most conservative or most traditional. We should rather aim to be exactly as God would have us and seek only to impress Him. We can then shut out the rest of the noise we find the world.

May our Blessed Lady keep each of us this next month, and in the hot and quiet of these summer months, may we strive to reflect more perfectly on Our Lord and seek to conform ourselves more perfectly to Him!

Fr. Paul Beek

Join the Sorrowful Mother Adoration group on the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th Fridays of the month for Mass and all-night Eucharistic Exposition at Old St. Mary. Mass begins at 7:00 p.m., followed by the novena. All-night vigil goes until 7:00 a.m. Saturday morning, concluding with benediction followed by Mass at 7:15 a.m. Call Mr. Shannon Roblin at 513-502-8548 or Mrs. Dolores Brandstetter at 513-561-4155 for additional information.

Learn about the Faith

FORMED is a Catholic web site that has resources for learning more about the Catholic Faith. The code for registration is NFDBVP which can be done at www.formed.org/register. Please take advantage of this great opportunity to learn more about our holy faith!

Catechism

We will begin Conversion Classes on July 18. The classes will be every Monday at 7:00 p.m. Classes are open to non-Catholics who are interested in learning more or joining the Church. Catholics are welcome, but only if they are accompanying a non-Catholic to the class or are in need of the Sacrament of Confirmation. Please contact Fr. Henry Hoffmann through the parish office for more information.

Join the Laudate Pueri Children's Schola Children who are between the ages of 8 -12 and are interested in joining the Laudate Pueri Children's Schola, please contact choir director, Sophia Decker, through the parish office by Friday, July 15 to schedule an informal audition. The purpose of the audition is to determine whether the child (prospective chorister) is able to match pitch. Choristers in the Laudate Pueri Children's Schola will learn to sing Gregorian chant with proper choral technique and beautiful bel canto tone. They will also learn basic literacy skills in chant through an introduction to concepts including neume names, chant clefs, solfege and sight-singing. The schola will perform an informal concert at the end of the year for family and friends, and opportunities to sing at retirement homes and Masses are expected to arise during the year. Cost is $195/semester (sibling discounts available).

Adorers Needed!

We are in need of adorers on First Fridays for our 8:00 p.m. hour, 10:00 p.m. hour, 11:00 p.m. hour, & 1:00 a.m. hour. Please contact the parish office if you can take any of these hours. In order to have adoration, we have to guarantee at least two adorers per hour. Even if you can't take a regular hour, but can be a substitute, please contact the parish office. Please help us keep adoration at Old St. Mary alive! It would be very helpful if we had an overall coordinator for adoration, or even one for Tuesday and another for First Friday. This person or persons should be devoted to adoration, be highly organized, and able to work closely with the parish office. Please contact Fr. Jon-Paul if able and interested!

Just a reminder that Vespers will not be held during the summer months. We will resume Sunday Vespers in the autumn— watch for a date in a future newsletter.

Corpus Christi Decorated

Thank you to Derrie Edge for organizing the mulch and the dyes to make the designs for the Corpus Christi procession. And, thanks to everyone who assisted with the decorations. It was beautifully done!

Parents' Holy Hour:

Tuesday Play and Pray Group

Join our Pray and Play group! This is a group of parents who meet beginning Tuesday, July 5 from 9:30 until 11:30 in Fr. Felten Hall. Children get to play and parents take turns covering the Adoration hour from 10:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. in the church. This allows parents some quiet time alone in Adoration or the chance to take children into Adoration for a shorter time period. This is a good opportunity to introduce Children to the idea of Adoration. For more information or questions, contact Fatima Spoor through the parish office.

Please note that there will be no evening Adoration or Confession on Tuesday, July 12.

July 3 is the 180th anniversary of the dedication of Old St. Mary.
Ad multos annos!

Parish eMail Group

A group of parishioners have created a Google eEmail group as a communication tool for news and activities involving the Parishes, Oratory and Carmelite Daughters of Elias. To join, please email cincinnatiatholics@gmail.com. For those who do not use Google, there will be an alternative email list. Please note this is not run or organized by the parishes, Oratory or Carmelite Daughters of Elias.

Parish Directory

One of our parishioners has volunteered to create a directory for both parishes. The directory will include names, phone numbers, email addresses, mailing addresses, children's names and ages, school names that your children attend, and business information for parishioners who own businesses. If your family would like to be included in the directory, please email any or all of the requesting information to cincinnatiatholics@gmail.com. Please know that the directory will be maintained by a volunteer rather than the parish office. Additionally, any information submitted will be shared with the Oratory, the Carmelite Daughters of Elias, and the parish office.

First Friday and First Saturday

Join us for our evening First Friday Mass at Old St. Mary at 6:30 p.m. and our First Saturday Mass at Sacred Heart at 9:00 a.m. These Masses are held the first Friday and first Saturday of every month.

Women's Oratory

The Women's Oratory meets monthly on Saturday mornings at Sacred Heart to help all women of our parishes grow and to support them in their Christian walk. Upcoming meetings will be July 9, Old St. Mary (Fr. Felten Hall), September 10, Old St. Mary (Fr. Felten Hall), October 1, Sacred Heart (Basement Hall), November 5, Sacred Heart (Basement Hall) and December 3, Sacred Heart (Basement Hall). For more information or to be added to the email distribution list, please contact Lisa Bloomfield at lisamarielbloomfield@gmail.com or Suzan Sammons at suzan@poverellos.com.

There will be enrollment in the Brown Scapular following the Mass for any parishioners who would like to be enrolled. Please bring your own scapular if you would like to be enrolled. Email carmelitedaughtersofelias@gmail.com with any questions.

There will be no daily Mass at Sacred Heart on July 26 or July 28.

Welcome, Sean Connolly!

We welcome Mr. Sean Connolly and his family back to Old St. Mary as he assumes the role of Director of Sacred Music. Sean was most recently at a Catholic parish in Sleepy Eye, Minnesota. Sean also recently completed his master's degree in Church Music with a concentration in Organ. Sean is conversational in German and conversational in Latin (if not fluent in both!). He will be a good match for our parish. Please be sure to welcome him for his first Sunday Masses on July 17!

Thank you to everyone who helped make the picnic another great success! Thank you in particular to the Kolping Center for allowing us to use their facilities!

We thank everyone who so generously assisted the Sharpshair family as they grieved the loss of their beloved Paul. May the Lord reward each of you, and may the angels lead Paul into paradise!

PLEASE do not move or park in a parking spot if the sign indicates that it is for a priest or sister!

PLEASE NOTE: you must be an active parishioner for at least three months before letters of good standing can be issued by the parish.

Please ensure that anything you want to place out in church has been pre-approved by Fr. Jon-Paul. Anything set out without his approval will be removed. Things placed out do not mean Fr. Jon-Paul or the other Fathers necessarily agree with material or promote it, only that there is nothing contrary to the teachings of the Church.

OSM Pregnancy Center

By the time you read this, the Roe vs Wade decision of 1973 will probably be overturned. This means that the abortion issue will be returned to the states. Some states will outlaw abortion and others, like California and New York, will probably continue killing the unborn. It is very important for OSMPC to remain open whatever happens and continue helping mothers and babies as we have for the last 21 years.

“Give us the grace – When the sacredness of life before birth is attacked, to stand up and proclaim that no one ever has the authority to destroy unborn life.” – St. John Paul II

CONFESSIONS: Please remember that Confession times before 9:00 a.m. daily Mass at Sacred Heart and before Old St. Mary’s 12:10 p.m. Mass are often not full. Saturday mornings are usually less crowded with two priests generally hearing confessions at that time. If you are able to make it to a less busy time, please do so for those who can’t. Please always try to be concise, clear, and well prepared, especially when the confession line is long. If you need spiritual advice on any matter that requires more than a few minutes, please make a separate appointment—we’re happy to be of service. Thank you for your consideration and cooperation so that we may make the Sacrament of Penance available to as many people as possible.

Summer Dance

Everyone — couples and singles — is invited to join us for a fun evening social and dance at Sacred Heart auditorium on Saturday, July 9, from 7:00-10:00 p.m. There will be a practice time available beforehand at 6:00 p.m. Snacks will be provided. Bring your own beer. Hope you can join us!

Today, the Catholic Church is dealing with many complex problems that often leave the faithful confused about the authentic interpretation of Catholic teaching.

In Calming the Storm: Navigating the Crises Facing the Catholic Church and Society, experienced Vatican journalist Diane Montagna conducts a wide-ranging and trenchant interview with Fr. Gerald E. Murray that examines the root causes of and potential solutions to the many challenges the Church faces today.

Fr. Murray's insights provide sure guidance in understanding the Church's teaching on:

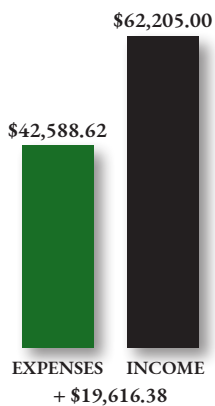

- the indissolubility of marriage
- homosexuality and gender ideology
- the worthy reception of Holy Communion
- the value of the Traditional Latin Mass
- the horror of the sexual abuse of minors by Catholic clergy
- the responsibility of bishops to uphold—not contradict—the Catholic Faith
- and, the duty of all Catholics to remain faithful to the teachings handed down from the apostles

Fr. Murray's analysis highlights that while Christianity is under siege in the modern world, our Faith teaches us to have confidence in God's never-failing providence. Renewing our minds and hearts in the truths that Christ and His Church teaches us brings true peace of soul. Amidst the maelstrom of doctrinal confusion and worldliness in the Church, Christ alone calms the storm when, like the Apostles, we turn to him in confidence and faith.
