NOTE from the PASTOR

This month of November we remember the Church Triumphant and the Church Suffering in a particular way. The Church, as the Mystical Body of Christ, is made up of three components, namely the Church Militant (the Church on earth), the Church Triumphant (the Church in heaven), and the Church Suffering (the Church in purgatory). We remember the latter two components of the Church, beginning with All Saints' Day on November 1 and then All Souls' Day on November 2.

In particular, we focus much of our attention on all the holy souls in purgatory, especially as we see the season change and death becomes a point of meditation for each of us. We make sure that we offer extra prayers for them, Masses, and good works. As I preach about often, every one of our actions has consequences. Our good actions have the result of gaining for us merit, which will determine how glorified we are in heaven. Our bad actions have the consequence of sin. However, even after we have sought forgiveness and God has forgiven our sins, the consequences and effects of our sins remain. If we spoke ill of someone and hurt their reputation, if we wrecked a vehicle, if we killed someone — these sins have effects that linger and justice demands that we atone for those consequences.

We do this either in this life or in the life to come. If we wait, which I don't advise, then we do so in purgatory, where all those consequences of our choices are spiritually burned from us until we are refined as gold again. This is why it is important to pray for the dead, to have Masses offered for them, and to do good works and gain indulgences for them.

In particular, on November 2, just by visiting a church and saying the Our Father and the Creed, we can gain a plenary indulgence for any specific soul we choose. Furthermore, from November 1 until November 8, by visiting a cemetery and praying for the deceased, we can also gain one indulgence per day for a specific soul of our choice. These indulgences must be applied to the dead and require us to be in a state of grace and detached from sin, that we receive Holy Communion for each indulgence, and that we make a single confession at some point within 20 days before or after the acts. We must also pray an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be for the intentions of the Holy Father.

May we not pass up these opportunities to help those who have gone before us. May we also be sure to pray for those who have no one else to pray for them! These will be the souls who are there to welcome us into heaven when it is our time. Also, by our generosity now with the dead, hopefully those left after us will do the same for us.

And may Mary, the Queen of the Saints, be our example to grow daily in grace and virtue, so that we may be worthy of heaven!

Fr. Jon Paul Bevak

Adorers Needed!

We are in need of adorers on First Fridays for our 10:00 p.m. hour, 11:00 p.m. hour, & 1:00 a.m. hour.

Please contact the parish office if you can take any of these hours. In order to have adoration, we have to guarantee at least two adorers per hour. Even if you can't take a regular hour, but can be a substitute, please contact the parish office. Please help us keep adoration at Old St. Mary alive! It would be very helpful if we had an overall coordinator for adoration, or even one for Tuesday and another for First Friday. This person or persons should be devoted to adoration, be highly organized, and able to work closely with the parish office. Please contact the parish office if able and interested!

Please remember the church is the House of God.

It is important to remember that in church, we are in His presence. Please try to maintain a prayerful spirit while also being respectful of others who come for quiet prayer. There is much noise and talking in the world, the church is our refuge into silence, to which Cardinal Robert Sarah calls us. Please keep talking and distractions to a minimum and talk to the Lord in the silence of your own heart.

Conversion Classes

We have now closed our conversion class to new members for this upcoming Easter Vigil. If you would like to be placed on the list for next year, please contact Fr. Henry through the parish office. Please be sure to pray for all those who are going through the classes now!

Catechism Classes

Class for our Kindergarten and 1st Graders will be on the first and third Sundays of the month following the 9:30 a.m. Mass at Old St. Mary. For more information or questions on catechism classes, please contact Mother Marie-Cécile.

Parents' Holy Hour: Play and Pray Group

Join our Pray and Play group! This is a group of parents who meet on Tuesdays from 9:30 until 11:30 in Fr. Felten Hall. Children get to play, and parents take turns covering the Adoration hour from 10:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. in the church. This allows parents some quiet time alone in Adoration or the chance to take children into Adoration for a shorter time period. This is a good opportunity to introduce Children to the idea of Adoration. For more information or questions, contact Fatima Spoor through the parish office.

Benedictus

This monthly booklet for daily use includes the 1962 Missale Romanum presented in a clear and simple format, daily excerpts included from both Lauds and Vespers of the 1960 Breviarum Romanum, the official morning and evening hours of prayer and much more in every issue. To learn more or to subscribe, go to praybenedictus.com

Learn about the Faith

FORMED is a Catholic web site that has resources for learning more about the Catholic Faith. The code for registration is NFDBVP which can be done at www.formed.org/register. Please take advantage of this great opportunity to learn more about our holy faith!

First Friday Masses

Thanksgiving Dinner

Can't be with your loved ones for Thanksgiving? What better way to give thanks for the abundance in your life and celebrate generosity than to share a dinner with the Carmelite Daughters of St. Elias? On Thursday, November 24, the Sisters will host a Thanksgiving Dinner at Old St. Mary in Fr. Felten Hall. Please email the Sisters for more information: CarmeliteDaughtersofElias@gmail.com.

Old St. Mary's Parking

Please do not take advantage of the parking passes and use them at times when you are not here for Mass or some other Church event. The Main Street lot and the big Clay Street lot are subleased from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. each evening to give us extra parking on Sundays, and other days we need it. If you are just visiting the neighborhood during these times and not coming to church, you should pay to park in these lots. If you do not, you risk being towed as they do patrol these lots. Please also note that the gates are locked each evening. If you are parked in a lot with a gate that locks, you will be locked in. PLEASE do not move or park in a parking spot if the sign indicates that it is for a priest or sister! Thank you for your cooperation.

Carmelite News

The Sisters' community is growing! They are preparing to welcome another postulant in January — Elliana Mitchell, from Tallahassee Florida. Please keep her in your prayers.

Sr. Emma Haro's clothing ceremony will be December 12 — the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe — at 6:00 a.m. Everyone is invited to this quiet, beautiful ceremony.

Pray also that they may continue with their building projects in OTR and Bethel. If you would like to volunteer time or labor, email carmelitedaughtersofelias@gmail.com.

Finally, they are often in need of supplies and groceries.

Please ensure that anything you want to place out in church has been pre-approved by Fr. Jon-Paul. Anything set out without his approval will be removed. Things placed out do not mean Fr. Jon-Paul or the other Fathers necessarily agree with material or promote it, only that there is nothing contrary to the teachings of the Church.

All Souls

Please find the All Souls' Book by the statue of Our Lady comforting the souls in purgatory at Old St. Mary and by the St. Lucy statue at Sacred Heart. The names of those in the book will be remembered in our prayers through the month of November. May they rest in peace.

The Church grants the following indulgences on November 2, which may be gained for the souls of the dead:

Indulged Acts for the Poor Souls—A partial indulgence can be obtained by devoutly visiting a cemetery and praying for the departed, even if the prayer is only mental. One can gain a plenary indulgence visiting a cemetery each day between November 1 and November 8. These indulgences are applicable only to the souls in purgatory.

A plenary indulgence, again applicable only for the souls in purgatory, is also granted when the faithful piously visit a church or a public oratory on November 2. In visiting the church or oratory, it is required, that one Our Father and the Creed be recited. A partial indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, can be obtained when the Eternal Rest (Requiem aeternam) is prayed. This can be prayed all year, but especially during the month of November: Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis. Requiescant in pace. Amen. (Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.)

The Requiem Mass

Many notable composers have devoted a portion of their talents to setting the texts of the Requiem Mass. Choosing which to sing on a given year is always a difficulty for the Catholic choirmaster, not least because the chants themselves, unadorned, are uncommonly beautiful and don't immediately seem to require any augmentation or replacement. This year we will tread the middle way.

At the High Mass for All Souls' Day this year, the choir of Old St. Mary will be singing the Requiem Mass set by Jacobus Clemens non Papa, a Low Countries composer who lived from about 1510 to 1556. His odd name included a seemingly humorous nickname given to him by his publisher: Jacob Clement "not Pope." This nickname has stuck with him for just about five hundred years.

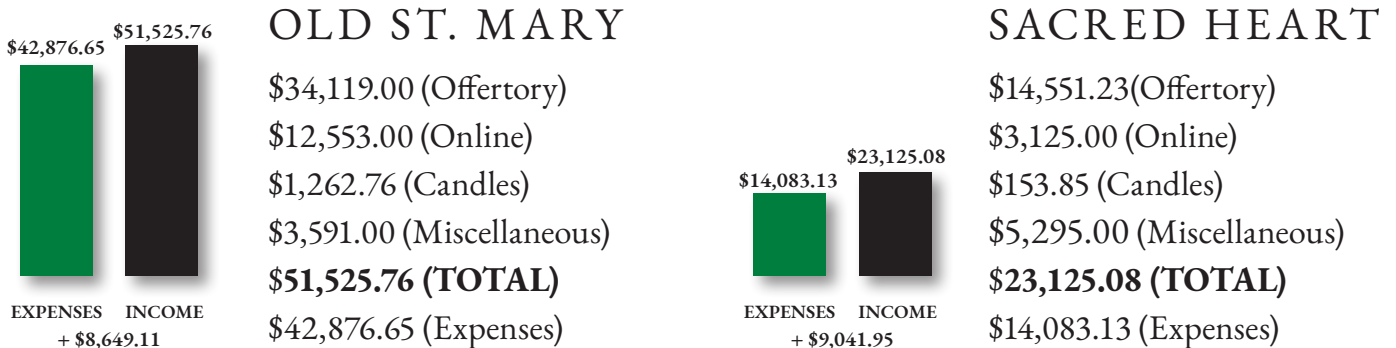

While perhaps less known than other settings of the text, Clemens' is one of the best suited to liturgical use and in keeping with the spirit of the Requiem Mass. It is unaccompanied, compact, fitting in neatly to the rhythm and flow of the rites, and it is based closely on and incorporates much of the original plainchant, finding for itself a musical voice that is in perfect harmony with the simplicity and tranquility of the texts and melodies, never giving way to drama or maudlin emotionalism.

Other musical offerings at Masses for the month of November will span the centuries, and include excerpts from the more recent Requiem Masses of Fauré and Duruflé, from 19th and 20th century France, as well as motets by Renaissance composers William Byrd and Fr. Tomas Luis de Victoria, setting texts from the liturgies of All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day, and a setting of the Anima Christi by a living Italian composer.

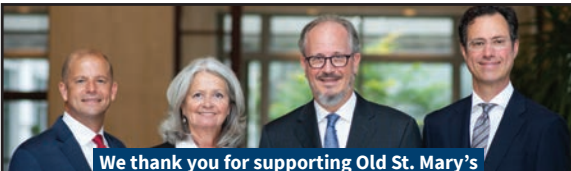

Beyond that, we continue to strive more perfectly to realize the full Gregorian chant propers each week, a priceless heritage of music and of prayer, and the boundless font from which our heritage of sacred music flows.

“For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” – Matthew 6:21
