NOTE from the PASTOR

During October, we celebrate two saints near and dear to the people of our parish, the sisters, and the Oratory. The two saints are the Little Flower, St. Therese (October 3), and St. John Henry Newman (October 9). St. Therese has been a popular saint effectively since her death in 1897. It is not uncommon to find a statue of her in many Catholic Churches around the world. She is so well-beloved because of her little way and the simplicity in which she exercised the spiritual life. That simplicity, however, was at the same time so deep and expansive that she is also the patron of the missions. This is in spite of the fact that the entirety of her religious life was spent behind the cloister of the Carmelite Order. We so often want to make the Faith and the spiritual life so difficult that St. Therese should be a model for each of us on how to love God in simplicity. On October 3, the First Sunday of October, please be sure to pray especially for our sisters and Carmelites around the world. Masses on this Sunday will be that of St. Therese, per permission from the Archbishop.

On October 9, we celebrate the Feast of St. John Henry Newman. St. John Henry Newman, just across the English Channel from St. Therese, died only seven years before her in 1890. A convert to the Faith, when anti-Catholic tension in England was high, he was willing to give up everything to embrace the Apostolic Faith. A profound intellectual, his writings, and sermons have helped inspire many to a deeper knowledge of the Faith. He was the founder of the first English-speaking Oratory when he established a house in Birmingham, England. Though very different from St. Philip, the founder of the Oratory in the sixteenth century, St. John Henry Newman found in St. Philip a spiritual model that helped him to live our his new Catholic Faith, priesthood, and the community that came to the Faith with him. There will be a Solemn Mass on Saturday, October 9 at 9:30 a.m. to celebrate this Feast. There will be a small social afterward.

The following week, on Saturday, October 16, we will have our annual Holy Name Men's Eucharistic Procession. I am encouraging all men of both Old St. Mary and Sacred Heart to attend. The procession will begin at 9:00 a.m. at the Cathedral and proceed through the streets of downtown and Over-the-Rhine. We will conclude at Old St. Mary around 11:00 a.m. with Benediction. This is an important witness, and processions are needed now more than ever with the situation in our Church and our county. So please make time to come to this important event.

I wish you all a blessed month ahead!

As such, everyone is encouraged to wear their traditional German attire to Mass. At the Kirchweih Mass, the celebrant will bless a rosemary bush (an old Christian symbol of love), which will be auctioned off the following weekend. On Sunday morning when you attend Mass say a little prayer of Thanksgiving for them. May God continue to bless them in their work!

Please remember the church is the House of God. It is important to remember that in church, we are in His presence. Please try to maintain a prayerful spirit while also being respectful of others who come for quiet prayer. There is much noise and talking in the world, the church is our refuge into silence, to which Cardinal Robert Sarah calls us. Please keep talking and noise to a minimum and talk to the Lord in the silence of your own heart.

The Society of the Little Flower

The Society of the Little Flower group meets the first Saturday of each month from 9:45 a.m. to noon. This group is for girls ages 6-12 interested in learning about the life and message of St. Therese, the Virgin Mary, and as well as many other heavenly helpers. Monthly activities include prayer, projects, spiritual lessons, service opportunities, and lots of fun. If your child would like to join, please email the Sisters for more information at daughtersofstelias@gmail.com.

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Sodality

This group, for girls ages 12-18, learns about living the spirituality of Our Lady in everyday life. This is accomplished through prayer, lessons, retreats, campouts, service projects and lots of fun! Meetings are monthly. If you are interested in joining — please email the Sisters at daughtersofstelias@gmail.com.

The Ascend Carmel Young Adult Spirituality Group

Meetings have resumed on the third Sunday of each month starting at 4:15 p.m. in Fr. Felten Hall (following Sunday Vespers). We will be studying the book I Want to See God. Interested in joining? Please email daughtersofstelias@gmail.com.

Holy Trinity Federation of North-American Explorers

Cincinnati's Holy Trinity Federation of North-American Explorers (FNE) group is kicking off another year of adventure and fun, and you are invited to join!

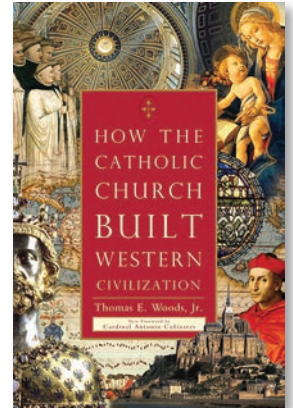

They are a Catholic traditional scouting organization, and have a full plan of exciting, faith-filled events, including campouts, day outings, service projects, and meetings with games and skill lessons. Meetings are held on the first and third Fridays each month in Lebanon, OH (specific location still to be determined), and all interested boys ages 7-17 are welcome to come and see the group in action. Parents are invited to watch the meeting as well, but not required to stay. Come see how FNE uniquely combines prayer, service, and outdoor fun to help develop boys into virtuous, well-rounded Catholic men!

Additional information about the group can be found at www.fneexplorers.com and on Facebook at www.facebook.com/Holytrinityfne. You can also contact Mark Glaser (holytrinity-fne@gmail.com) or Brian Kraft (kraftbm@yahoo.com / 513.780.2590) to get more details on the program and the upcoming meeting.

LEARN & LOVE THE FAITH

Ask someone today where Western Civilization originated, and he or she might say Greece or Rome. But what is the ultimate source of Western Civilization? Bestselling author and professor Thomas E. Woods, Jr. provides the long neglected answer: the Catholic Church. In the new paperback edition of his critically-acclaimed book, How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization, Woods goes far beyond the familiar tale of monks copying manuscripts and preserving the wisdom of classical antiquity. Gifts such as modern science, free-market economics, art, music, and the idea of human rights come from the Catholic Church, explains Woods. In How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization, you'll learn:

- Why modern science was born in the Catholic Church
- How Catholic priests developed the idea of free-market economics five hundred years before Adam Smith
- How the Catholic Church invented the university
- Why what you know about the Galileo affair is wrong
- How Western law grew out of Church canon law
- How the Church humanized the West by insisting on the sacredness of all human life

No institution has done more to shape Western civilization than the two-thousand-year-old Catholic Church—and in ways that many of us have forgotten or never known. How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization is essential reading for recovering this lost truth. – www.regnery.com

Salvation and spiritual perfection should not be sought haphazardly; a strategy is needed to win the battle for our souls.

The Spiritual Combat, first published in 1589, provides timeless guidance in spiritual discipline. St. Francis de Sales (1576-1622) read from it himself every day and recommended it to everyone under his direction.

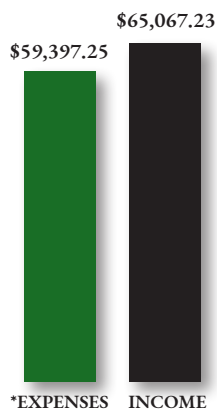

Vigorous, realistic and full of keen insight into human nature, The Spiritual Combat consists of short chapters based on the maxim that in the spiritual life one must either “fight or die.” Fr. Scupoli shows the Christian how to combat his passions and vices, especially impurity and sloth, in order to arrive at victory.
